Member Definitions

Couple - A couple must be married or able to provide evidence of co-habitation (e.g. bank statement)

Children aged 1-21 years - Children must be linked to an individual adult or couple membership. (An individual becomes eligible for adult membership in his/her own right from the age of 18 years). See rules 10e and 10f.

Weekday Plus - Access is restricted to the times shown overleaf, except that a Weekday Plus member may be resident at all times including weekends.

Off-peak - Off-peak access is restricted to the times shown overleaf, except that an Off-peak member may be resident at all times including weekends.

Au pair/nanny - An au pair or nanny membership must be linked to a membership with children up to 12 years. The restricted nanny membership allows the nanny to use the Club only when accompanied by the sponsor family's child(ren); there is no guest entitlement or sponsoring rights. The full nanny membership confers the full rights of membership except they may not sponsor additional family members as Lensbury members.

Country - Available to adults over the age of 21, with no geographical restrictions. Country members are entitled to use Lensbury on a residential basis only and there is no non-residential access. Country members may be resident as often as they wish at the members' Tariff, subject to the booking terms and conditions.
